

A photograph of four children in a lush green forest. They are gathered around a rustic wooden table made of a log. The child on the left wears a pink patterned dress. Next to them is a child in a blue shirt and a red hat with a pom-pom. To the right is a child in a brown cloak over a red and white checkered shirt. Another child is partially visible behind the first. The forest is dense with green foliage and large trees. A yellow banner at the bottom contains the text 'Lebensraum für Gnome, Elfen und Wichtel'. On the right side, there is a vertical logo with a mountain icon and the text 'SPIELTRÄUMER.CH'.
